

Presumptive Eligibility Training Quiz

True/False Questions:

1. Presumptive eligibility may be approved for anyone that is potentially Medicaid eligible.
2. Presumptive eligibility determinations are limited to once per two calendar years, or once per pregnancy.
3. Pregnant women approved for presumptive eligibility are limited to ambulatory care only.
4. Individuals have two months from the date of their presumptive determination to file an application.
5. Completing and submitting the Hospital Presumptive Determination Form serves as a valid application for an individual for Medicaid.
6. Individuals should furnish proof of citizenship or alien status when completing a presumptive determination.
7. Pregnant women without legal immigration status may not be approved for presumptive eligibility and must file a full Medicaid application.
8. Only the income of the parents is counted in the income calculation.
9. A minor parent living with his/her parents must be counted in his/her parents' household.
10. Verification of pregnancy is required for presumptive eligibility determinations.

Multiple Choice Questions:

1. Which of the following is NOT an example of deprivation under the Parent/Caretaker Medicaid Category?
 - a. Absence
 - b. Child with a disability
 - c. Incapacity
 - d. Hundred-Hour Rule
2. Which of the following is NOT an income deduction that may be used in the calculation?
 - a. Reforestation expenses
 - b. Alimony
 - c. Student loan interest
 - d. Energy efficiency costs

3. Which of the following are exempt from the five year bar for Aliens with Lawful Permanent Resident status?
 - a. Iraqi and Afghan special immigrants
 - b. Pregnant women
 - c. Children
 - d. Both b and c
4. When calculating income, the net income amount is used for what type of income?
 - a. Self-employment
 - b. Earned income (from regular employment)
 - c. Unearned income
 - d. Both a and b
5. All of the following are excluded income EXCEPT:
 - a. Child support
 - b. Veterans benefits
 - c. Unemployment compensation
 - d. Money gifts from family members
6. All of the following are accurate descriptions of a dependent child except:
 - a. An 18-year-old enrolled full time in community college
 - b. A 16-year-old who is living in the home and in school
 - c. A 16-year-old who is living in the home and is not in school
 - d. Both a and c
7. Which of the following is NOT a requirement for individuals in the Former Foster Care category?
 - a. Must have been in foster care under Nebraska responsibility
 - b. Must meet the income guideline for their age group
 - c. Must be over age 18 and under age 26
 - d. Must have been active in Medicaid when they aged out of foster care
8. Which of the following is NOT a Medicaid category able to receive a presumptive eligibility determination?
 - a. Children
 - b. Former Foster Care
 - c. Disabled Adults
 - d. Parents

Household Size Questions:

1. Mary is a 56-year-old working grandmother who claims her daughter Samantha, age 18 and a full-time student, and her granddaughter Joy (Samantha's daughter), age 2, as tax dependents. No one in the home is pregnant. No one in the home has health insurance. Joy is the household member in need of a presumptive determination.
 - a. What is the household size for Joy?
2. Alice is a 66-year-old working grandmother who has her 12-year-old grandson Bill living with her. Alice does not plan to claim Bill as a tax dependent. Bill received Social Security Survivor benefits, and he is not expected to file taxes. No one in the household is pregnant. Alice received Medicare benefits, and Bill has no health insurance. Bill is the household member in need of a presumptive determination.
 - a. What is the household size for Bill?
3. Household consists of Kelly (age 45), her partner Stanley (age 47), Kelly's 15-year-old son Isaac, Stanley's 14-year-old son Trent, and Stanley and Kelly's 2-year-old son Jacob. Kelly claims Isaac as a tax dependent. Stanley claims Trent and Jacob as tax dependents. No one in the household is pregnant. No one in the household has health insurance. Trent is the household member in need of a presumptive determination.
 - a. What is the household size for Trent?
4. Household consists of Doug (age 50), his daughter Elizabeth (age 18), Elizabeth's husband Andrew (age 19), and Andrew and Elizabeth's son Sam (age 1). Doug claims Elizabeth as a tax dependent, and Andrew claims Sam as a tax dependent. All family members live together. No one in the household has medical insurance. Elizabeth is pregnant and is expecting twins. Andrew plans on claiming the twins as tax dependents after they are born. Doug is the household member in need of a presumptive determination.
 - a. What is the household size for Doug?
5. In the same household listed in #4, Elizabeth is the household member in need of a presumptive determination.
 - a. What is the household size for Elizabeth?